Privacy and POPIA

CONSENT FOR THE USE OF LEARNER IMAGES AND MEDIA IN PROGRAM PUBLICATIONS

Old Mutual Foundation and its implementing partners are committed to protecting the learner’s privacy and recognise that it needs to comply with statutory requirements in collecting, processing and distributing of personal information. The constitution of the Republic of South Africa provides that everyone has the right to privacy and the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. (“POPI”) includes the right to protection against unlawful collection, retention, dissemination and the use of personal information. It is for this reason that Old Mutual Foundation requires recorded consent from you as the Competent Person or legal guardian for the use of learner photographs and media in program publications.

Should you grant consent, it is for the following;

1.1 include any still and/or moving image, video footage, photographs and/or frames and/or audio footage and other media with or without name, of the Learner, or depicting the Learner, for the following uses:

1.1.1 in Program publications (whether local or international) such as program magazines, Velle and Old Mutual websites, or in press releases to celebrate the Program’s or the Learner’s activities, achievements or successes;

1.1.2 sales and marketing materials of the Program and its partners such as leaflets, flyers, brochures or any other printed media designed for this purpose and disseminated locally or internationally

1.1.3 the development of materials for educational or publicity purposes both locally and internationally; and

1.1.4 promotion of the Program's official social media platforms, including but not limited to Facebook, Instagram, Twitter/X, YouTube or any other such social media platform designated for official use by the Program.

Permission is also granted to use this material for the duration of the learner’s participation in the program, as well as after the learner has left the program, unless otherwise stipulated in writing.

2. The Program shall (and will procure that any third party professional engaged for the abovementioned purposes shall) under no circumstances sell any still and/or moving image, video footage, photographs and/or frames and/or audio footage and other media with or without name to a third party.
